Re: Rimmax Wheels, LLC v. RC Components, Inc.,
Civil Action No. 06-029

Dear Chief Judge Robinson:

This firm is counsel to Defendant RC Components, Inc. ("RC") in the above-referenced action.

I write to bring to the Court's attention an argument in the Reply Brief in Support of Defendant RC Components, Inc.'s Motion for Summary Judgment (the "Reply Brief") that is no longer applicable in light of Plaintiff's filing of a sworn and executed copy of the Affidavit of Michael Rivers (the "Rivers Affidavit"), on February 9, 2007.¹ Because Plaintiff initially filed an unexecuted and unsworn copy of the Rivers Affidavit with the Opposition, RC argued in the Reply Brief that the Court should disregard the Rivers Affidavit.

Although filed after Plaintiff's deadline to file the Opposition, Plaintiff's corrective February 9 filing makes RC's argument on this issue in pages 1 and 2 of the Reply Brief no longer applicable.

¹ Plaintiff filed the Rivers Affidavit in connection with its Brief in Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment (the "Opposition").
